INTO THE NARRATIVE OF U.C.L.A.'S SWEEPING PROGRESS IS WRITTEN THE NAME WILLIAM HENRY SPAULDING—EDUCATOR AND GENIAL AMBASSADOR OF HIS UNIVERSITY. A DECADE OF SERVICE IS HIS RECORD: YEARS IN WHICH 'BILL'S' WARM HUMOR AND INTELLIGENCE HAVE BEEN WINNING FRIENDS FOR U.C.L.A. IT WAS NOT ANTICIPATION OF NOTORIETY, BUT RATHER AN HONEST CERTAINTY THAT THE UNIVERSITY MERITED RECOGNITION AS A LEADER AMONG COLLEGES OF THE WEST INDUCED HIM TO BECOME OUR OFF-CAMPUS CHAMPION. WE HAVE PROFITED. BILL, AND IN APPRECIATION WE DEDICATE SOUTHERN CAMPUS OF 1942 TO YOU.

Achievement of Perfection

OURS IS A UNIVERSITY DESIGNED FOR GREATNESS. FACING THE PROGRESSIVE WEST, SURVEYING BOTH MOUNTAINS AND OCEAN. IT STANDS IN COMMAND OF THE FINEST OUTLOOK IN THE NATION. BEHIND IT IS A RICH. A GROWING STATE—FOURTH IN WEALTH AND SECOND IN LAND IN OUR COUNTRY. DIRECTING IT ARE THE MOST DISTINGUISHED SCHOLARS OF THE WORLD: WINNERS OF MORE GUGGENHEIM FELLOWSHIPS THAN CANDIDATES OF ANY OTHER UNI-VERSITY IN COMPETITION. SCHOLASTICALLY WE RANK THIRD AMONG ALL AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES: FOR COMPLETENESS OF INSTRUCTION IN THIRTY-ONE FIELDS WE HOLD A RECORD UNSURPASSED . . . ALL THIS, AND WE ARE YET A YOUNG UNIVERSITY, GLORIOUSLY FREE FROM TRADITION. PROFESSORS, ADMINISTRATORS, AND STUDENTS WORK TOWARD THEIR IDEAL, OUR THEME, THE ACHIEVEMENT OF PERFECTION AS SYMBOLIZED BY THE GREEK GODS OF PARTHENON.

ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS

To the twenty-four members of the Board of Regents falls the mighty charge of maintaining the vast administrative machinery of the University of California functioning smoothly. Capably, they have formed Standing Committees which individually study matters financial or managerial, educational, relational, or developmental. The administrative officials on each of the seven campuses receive the plans of the Board and efficiently put them into operation.

A COLLAIS DART IN ACHIEVING DERFECTION:

U.C.L.A.'S PART IN ACHIEVING PERFECTION: a crusade which symbolizes something high, shining, and dynamic for every loyal Bruin. And some of our most loyal and progressive Bruins are those men and women who once wore the cap and gown of U.C.L.A. and later became its professors. We have chosen for presentation nineteen of these faculty members, noted for their keen academic spirit, sincerity, and forcefulness.

Assistant Professor of Geology ROBERT WEBB buried himself somewhere below the extra-curricular surface worrying about diastrophism, but took time out to make the Westwood move of '29.

A "captain-who-became-the-coach" is WILBUR JOHNS, basketball generalissimo, who led the hoopsters as a student, played on the Varsity tennis squad, made Blue C and the presidency of the Junior Class.

As sports editor of the Daily Bruin, Blue Key man, member of Pi Sigma Alpha, Pi Delta Epsilon and Cal Grizzly, DR, ARTHUR STEINER, Associate Pro'essor of Political Science, was activity man—definitely!

A.S.: ART IN ACHIEVING PERFECTION: In the perform claim such a distinction if unsupported by an academic staff of vigorous intelligence and integrity. Proof of the fact that we have no such lack are the nineteen men and women, all U.C.L.A. graduates, chosen to represent our able faculty. From different departments with varying interests, they typify the worthiest attributes of Bruin alumni and professors.

JOSEPH E. SPENCER, Instructor in Geography (and a popular faculty sponsor), can remember the grind of working his way through U.C.L.A. Presidency of the Geographical Society claimed any free time!

Now dictating political lore in classes, DEAN Mc-HENRY, Assistant Professor of Political Science, once dictated campus politics as first non-org A.S.U.C. prexy; also recorded as U.D.S, head and Blue Key man, too.

"Cunningham for President" echoed in '28 when THOMAS CUNNINGHAM, Instructor in Military Science, became A.S.U.C. prexy, being a Delt and member of Pi Sigma Alpha and Blue Shield as well as head politico.

U.C.L.A.'S PART IN ACHIEVING PERFECTION: a proud role which could never reach full brilliance but for the strengthening influence of a capable faculty. As distinctive of our academic leaders commanding in this respect, we have selected nineteen professors who pursued outstanding careers as U.C.L.A. undergraduates, and who, we think, possess those qualities of intellect and enterprise symbolic of true "higher learning."

Returning to U.C.L.A. in '39 to become Instructor in English, JAMES E. PHILLIPS in pre-degree days slaved for the Daily Bruin as Music Critic, was church organist, and, incidentally made Phi Beta Kappa!

Once king of the Alpha Kappa Psis, GEORGE W. ROBBINS. Assistant Professor of Marketing, made Delta Upsilon and the Commerce Club, and as prexy of Ptah Khepera started plans for the Masonic Club House.

An energetically esthetic Alpha Phi and a Pomona transfer, GERTRUDE WICKES, Associate in Fine Art, spent most of her hours before an easel, joined Pi Lambda Theta, and in '39 returned to teach.

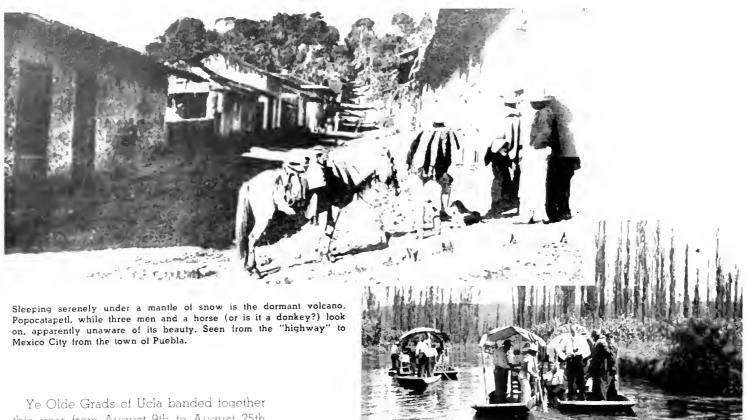

We introduce Mimi Koumrian office and Johnny Jackson's U.C.L.A. Alumni Association office and Johnny Jackson's "Girl Friday."

Once just a "southern office" branch of the Berkeley Alumni Association, U.C.L.A.'s own alumni Association records its official birth date as March, 1934. Now one of the largest groups of its kind, it boasts a correspondingly large program. Beginning with the establishment of the campus Bureau of Occupations, the indefatigable Alums went on to inaugurate a general Alumni Banquet which has since become an annual Academic Homecoming; and the mimeographed News Bulletin they experimentally inserted into The California Monthly in 1926 has grown into The U.C.L.A. Magazine. Such a forward march has increased the business of the Association which now claims the sponsorship of both Fall and Spring Homecomings, and the endowment of yearly scholarships supported by the organization dues.

this year from August 9th to August 25th to trek south of the border to carefree Mexico. The alumni enjoyed everything about the trip the siestas, the scenery and even the tamales and enchiladas. All generally agreed that "It was wonderful!"

Apparently forgetting to signal for a left turn, these seafarers find themselves in a ticklish situation in the Floating Gardens at Xochimilco.

The beautiful Cathedral of Taxco as viewed from a quaintly picturesque street. Could those interested spectators be three of our sun-tanned alumni?

A sunny day in Mexico bears no evils for the natives, as these senors with sombreros prove while standing

Two alumnae, Marie Jauregui and Frances Aertker, very adequately chaperoned by "Jose", enjoy a ride in a speedy cabriole in the beautiful city of Guadalajara.

The worldly-wise Frosh Officers, Bert Perkins, Mary Lou Phillips, Janet Bledsoe and Willie Privett, amused the campus with their Freshman Week and the slogan, "Look Alive with '45". Here they are, practicing what they preach.

affairs, and in these war-times any academic diversions should be encouraged. A successful program of competitive athletics gives a "name" to a school, stirs school spirit by giving a strong sense of pride to undergraduates. Though some of the frills of university education are eliminated in our all-out war effort, directors of the armed forces insist that athletic programs be continued. Army and Navy spokesmen have informed the Administration that leadership is the greatest single contribution the University can make to our cause—the leadership developed through athletics.

Approval of men's athletic awards rests with the Athletic Board. SEATED: Assistant Manager A. J. Sturzenegger, Nick Angeles, Hector Anton, Roy Menashe. Roger Hoeger, Chairman Sandy Cameron. STANDING: Graduate Manager William Ackerman. Sam Sale.

Blue C Prexy Sandy Cameron, ex-basketball star, brandishes the gavel as Chairman of the Men's Athletic Board.

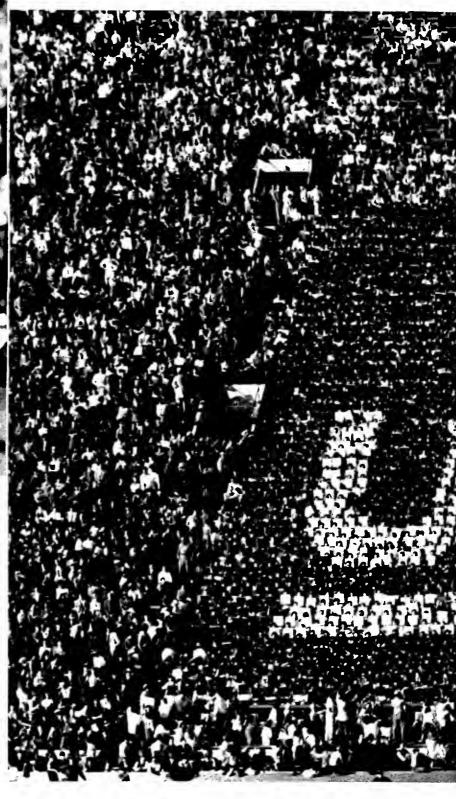

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

By smooth management of his job as supervisor of some twenty-one sports, Bill Spaulding, U.C.L.A.'s Director of Athletics, still finds time for a round or two of golf.

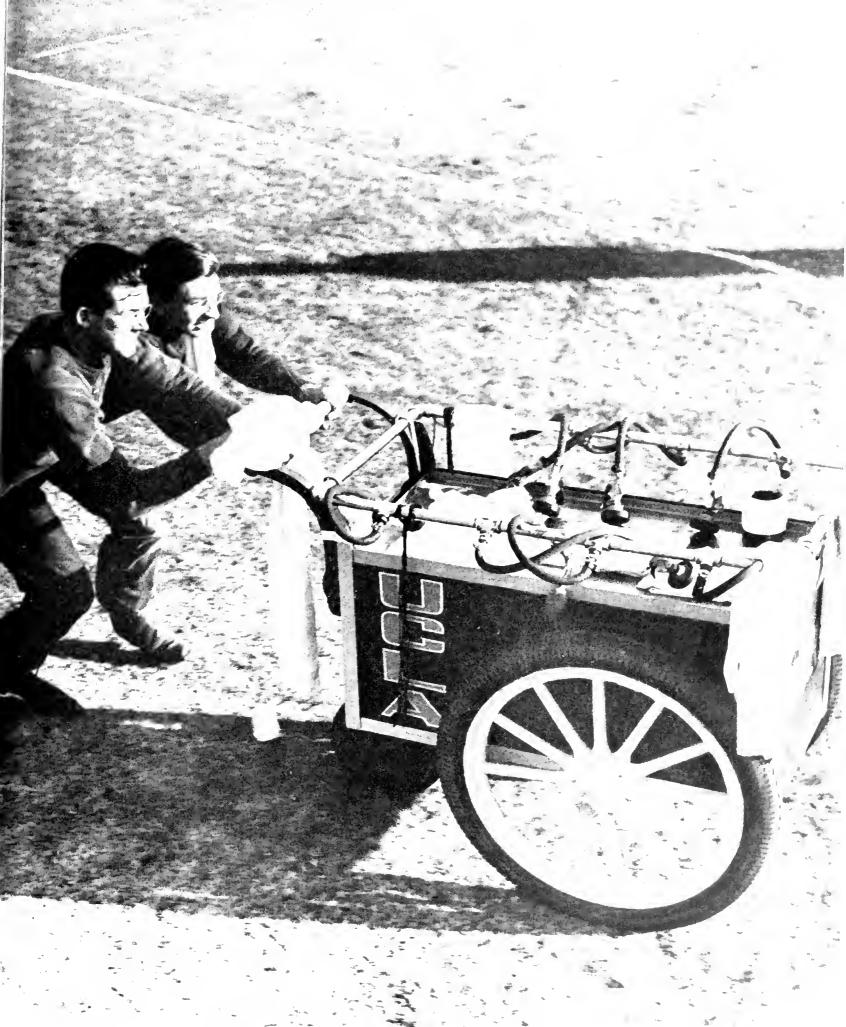

The camera has caught our terrifically popular head yell man "Moe" Yonemura with his back to the rooting section and his eye on the Bruin football barometer which apparently is down at the moment.

The task of leading several thousand people in tense to mente to a for worthy of a general or a demagogue. Head yell leader Moe Yonemura combined the best qualities of the two with a bland precision, a swift thythme that held Brum receters tascinated. Assisting Yonemura were two weterans from the preceding seasonemura to be used to the printer. But hextremes were to dry the orders, in the Camp Haan game when the large were the determinant materials and in the decrease with the treatment was double than a terminal to the treatment.

Vastly under-rated Nate DeFrancisco paves the way for another Bruin gain. Indeed, a second later, Webfoot Wynne swore that a chunk of pavement had hit him.

During the half time, the Bruin rooting section advertised the fact that they were appearing in a current issue of Life magazine.

PRACTICE SEASON

Practice season saw the Bruins warming up and "having it around the infield" of the Sawtelle field. Such opponents as Priddy's All-Stars, Yankee Jrs., Loyola, and the Cincinnati Jrs. gave the boys plenty of practice.

Best showing by the Uclans was against the Loyola Lions when they showed good form, and played "headsup" ball. Los Angeles City College was another victim of the Bruin nine, losing 9-3 to the local club.

With cries of "Kill the ump" and "Sock that pill." the boisterous Bruins keep the stands in an uproar. Experienced at the "gentle" art of catcalling and pitcher-baiting, they can hold their own with the best of kibitzers.

Giusti of St. Mary's, striking a pose from "Dance of a Fawn," tries his polo technique on a nice little grounder from Sacks, Bruin pitcher.

The Gallopin Gaels from Moraga broke pretty even with the Bruins. Their first game put U.C.L.A. in the lead with a 19-6 win. The second in their series went to St. Mary's who won in a tight 4-3 game. On their northern trip, the Bruins again were out to win but bad weather helped to slow down their game.

Athletic Director Spaulding and Provost Hedrick talk over signals before the first game of the season. "Lefty" Hedrick threw the first ball to commemorate the opening of the new Joe E. Brown field.

Another Gael hits the Bruins, but it's an ill wind that blows no good and the Bruins turned this one into a $10.6\ victory$.

Catcher Buck Compton gives a perfect illustration of the old adage about "keeping your eyes on the ball."

The Bruin - Trojan feud continued as ardently as ever on the baseball diamond this season. Led by the capable pitching performance of Co-Captain Rudy Hummes and the steady, ground covering work as shortstop of Co-Captain Kirk Sinclair, the battling Bruins played their best on every meeting. Facing not only their traditional foe but also the top team in the league, the Westwooders upset the Trojan horse by a neat shellacking 9-6. The S.C. team, with an outstanding line-up, showed true championship style but was continually placed on the defensive by the hard-hiting U.C.L.A. club.

Who said a fitcher can't hit? Southpaw Hummes here founces upon the home flate triumphantly while Fielders Burgess and Kobayashi smile tolerantly.

Bruin runner crosses the first sack, umpires and base coaches notwithstanding.

No, this is not a game of tag. While one Trojan comes wheezing across the plate, the umpire and his friends are motioning wayward Trojan back to second. One of these days, our crosstown rivals are going to learn how to play the game.

Stewart Bowden

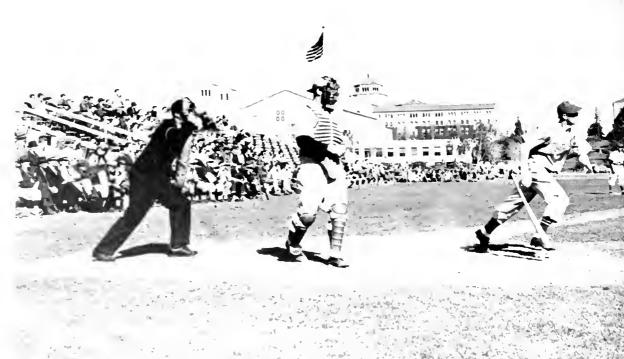

Norton Nelson

Battling against a good California ball team, the Bruins split the first two games. The Bears won an easy victory on the first game, 15-9, but their second attempt was balked by a close 12-11 Bruin win. Playing their last game on Berkeley soil, the Bruins showed well and gave the Northern brethren a better against registion of what fighter against can do.

A Bear hit, early in the third, started the game arollin'. But being the thirteenth game, something had to happen and it did. The Bruins upset the Berkeley applecant 12 to 11, breaking a 12 game winning streak.

Calling matches from the nest and putting up with tennis players' tem-peraments kept Senior Manager Kirk Kyser on his toes.

Elected by his teammates to lead them in net warfare was Alex Gordon, conscientious captain. In spite of a bad season he held up well.

The base of operations for tennis matches is the scorekeeper's perch. Here the senior manager holds forth with statistics, tennis balls, towels and temperaments always present. Some people say that the best tennis players are those who don't have worries such as a grade point average.

Ill-omened beginning for the track team was marked by an early season injury to broad-jumper-captain Jack Schilling. Holding to the remainder carefully, Coach Trotter found he had a fairly good nucleus in veterans Miller, Maggard, and Shoaff in the jumps, and Boyd and Duke on the track, but scoring was held to a minimum due to a lack of good men to match large turnouts of opposing teams.

The power he added to the team in the broad jump and high jump shoved Jack Schilling into the captaincy. The season started badly for Jack because of a bad ankle.

For the '42 season the Sigma Pis decided to have Bill Meyer for senior track manager.

This cheerful little band busied themselves in the care of the men who prefer an active outdoor life. Guarding track equipment and supplying it when necessary kept the boys in almost as good trim as the athletes themselves. Ed Samuelson, Bill Cutbirth, Bill Meyer, Dick Colman, Elliot Melnick.

Bamboo bearer Ray Maggard helps the Bruin cause by marking a clean vault at 13' $6^{\prime\prime}$ to tie with Smith of California.

Despite their valiant efforts the small Bruin track squad was able to gain few victories against the overwhelming power of the northern school. Bruin power showed briefly when Hubert Duke skimmed over the low hurdles in 24.4, and the Bears were unable to match Shoaff's 6 feet in the high jump. Score reached 100 to 31 when Ray Maggard placed in an unexpected three-way tie in pole-vault.

Bruin cinder-fellas dragged along behind the Arizona Wildcats for most of their dual meet, then pushed into the lead when Duke and Bowdoin hopped the low hurdles to take first and second, and Paul Shoaff, the only double winner of the day, grabbed five points in the broadjump. Shoaff's other win was taken in the high-jump. Two meet records were broken: first, when Mode Perry forgot his third place in the mile and set a new meet half-mile record at 2m. ls.; and second, when Ray Maggard lifted the pole-vault mark to 13 feet 6 inches. Final score was 73-58.

The genial tellow who grinds out material for the following year's varsity might well exhort his charges to light for his own alma mater. "Ducky" Drake is a former Bruin half-miler and cross country man.

Because of the remoteness of Ballona Creek, Bruin crew headquarters, few people outside of the boys who pull oars have the opportunity to know Ben Wallis, insurance executive and crew coach "cum laude."

Captain of the Blue Sea, U.C.L.A.'s coaching launch, is Winston Foster, faithful senior manager.

One of the select few who are able to earn a crew letter for three years of varsity competition is Captain Tony Lloyd-Morris, varsity stroke.

Being on hand with screw drivers, grease, tape, and no end of patience is the job of a crew manager. Even these boys learn to love the sport when they have to join the oarsmen on Sundays, holidays, Assisting Chief Foster were Bill Deardorff, Don Murray, and Gunner Erikson.

Elizabeth Whitfield, PRESIDENT

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

President and Vice-President of
A. S. U. C. L. A.

Dorothy Dodge, the winsome miss with the surprisingly deep voice, has broken tradition by becoming Mrs. Scott Miller while in office. This fact hasn't kept her from being a thoroughly efficient and charming hostess, however; and the A.S.U.C.L.A. is proud of the girl who represented them at official functions.

Varsity Basketball star and former President of the Phi Psi House, Bob Alshuler stepped into office after a closely contested campaign featuring rainy-day umbrella service by his fraternity brothers. Bob has been a rather quiet president, but nevertheless has proven to be a steady, efficient, and capable leader.

ORGANIZATIONS CONTROL BOARD Joe Luder, A.T.O., spokesman for the O.C.B, political and social wheel, rose to the position of Chairman of the Board and thereby became lather to hordes of secretaries and uncle to droves of active, inactive and defunct organizations. A warmheartee, behad a following that lew in campus politics, lose that a following that lew in campus politics could rival for loyalty.

Bill Moser, Patty Lou Archibald and Nick Angeles are members of the astute group called the Co-op

The Social Service Council: Karl, Chapman, Goodrich, Negley, McCarthy, Carbee, STANDING: Moore, Berman, McManus, Epstein, Chamberlain, Patterson, Gillespie, Warrimer, Prescott.

The Organizations Control Board deals with more complex business than possibly any other student agency on campus. The office regulates the dates of social affairs and recognizes organizations in addition to performing the function of sophomore training ground for would-be politicians. The chairman for the year has been Joe Luder, who efficiently supervised the usual crop of good looking coeds who made up the office staff and added spice to the Kerckhoff scene.

Seated: Peggy McQuilkin, Joe Luder, Marv Saltzman, Bob Barsky, Marilyn Moon, Harriet Coston, Jean Ragan, Standing: Moe Yonemura, Guy Freutel, Bill Montigel, Ruth Elwood, Bob Wolcott, Osceola Herron, and Georgie Randle.

Cafe Advisory Board Members Ezra Weintraub, Ben Shepherd, and Ken Kilbourne decide minor points in Co-op management.

The Board of Control keeps a careful watch on the financial status of the A.S.U.C.L.A., and manages to see to it that the income from football season and all other public events is a tidy sum. Composed of Business Manager Deming Maclise, Graduate Manager Ackerman, Student Body President and Vice-President, an alumni representative, and two faculty members, the group plans and guides the policies by which the student government is administered. Now in its ninth year of existence, the body has consistently proven its indispensable worth.

Graduate Manager Bill Ackerman looks more like a student than an executive. coaches the tennis teams with adequate skill, and deals directly with the many and varied activity problems of the Associated Students.

Assistant Graduate Manager A. J. Sturzenegger is known to most Kerckholl executives as "Sturzy". He has charge of transportation for athletic events. supplies, and equipment, and does his job with a great deal of interest and enthusiasm.

Comptroller and Business Manager Deming G. Maclise's thorough-going knowledge of what's what in the business world has put the financial standing of the A.S.U.C.L.A. up on top. Twelve years of service in the position he holds makes him a real authority on university linance.

Ben Person is the man responsible for the publicity of all athletic events of U.C.L.A., and was once a student journalist here as well.

 $\label{thm:continuous} \begin{tabular}{lll} Ticket Manager for the A.S.U.C. is Harry Morris, who supervises the sale of tickets to both students and public for all affairs. \end{tabular}$

Stanley Reel is the official cashier in Kerckhof. Hall, and is a popular fellow on pay-day. Knows all the answers in the world of finance.

Guy Buckingham supervises the athletes who work in Kerckhoff Hall, and is officially Head Custodian. Schedules parties and is a friend to all.

Ralph Stillwell manages the University Book Store, which daily supplies the student body with the tools necessary to an academic career.

Herb Dallinger, back at his post after his service in the Army, snaps athletic and social events to benefit the Unviersity's publicity.

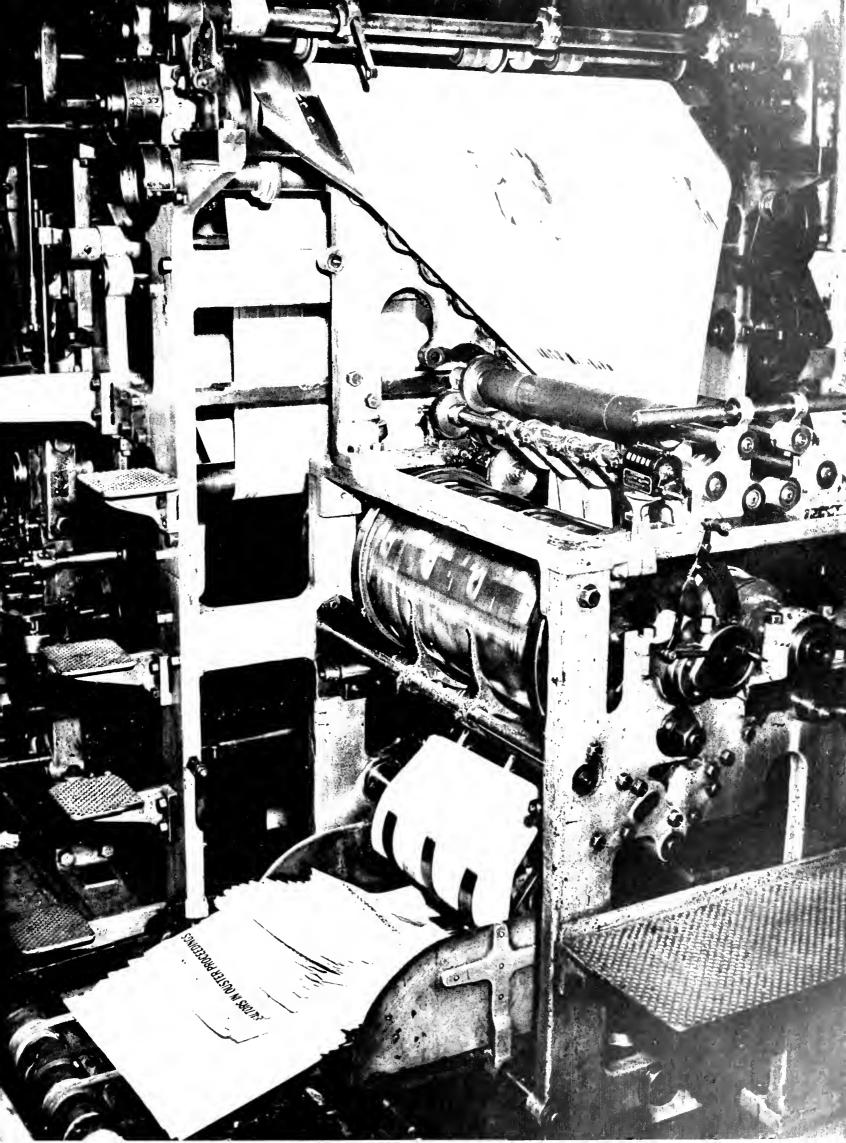

Mrs. Fern Kelly manages the Cafeteria and Coffee Shop, feeding the many students who can be seen exchanging gossip there at any time of the day.

T. D. Stanford is Auditor and Purchasing Agent for the A.S.U.C.L.A. Through his office go all purchases for departments and organizations.

Joe Lennox is Chief Accountant for the A.S.U.C.L.A. He is swarmed under by much complicated figuring, but sees to it that the budget is intact.

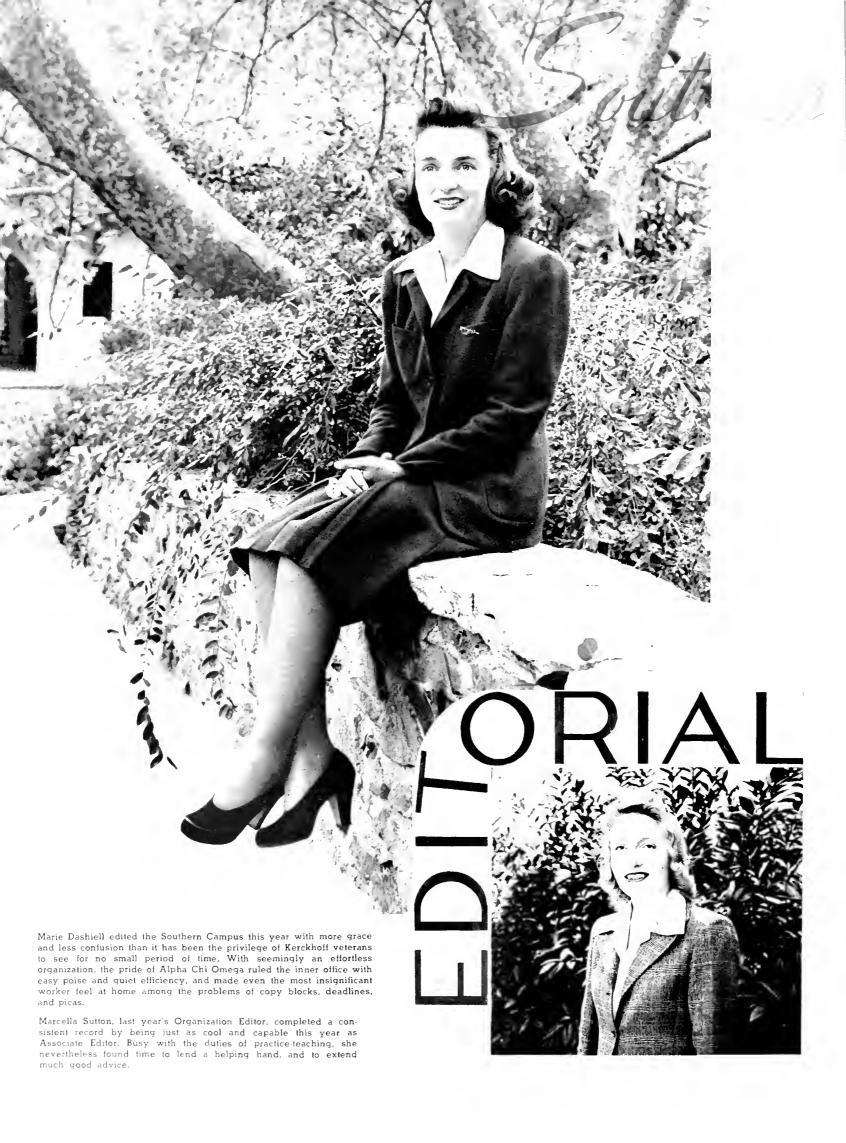

George Hjorth Assistant Photographer

Possessed of a pleasing personality, and the ability to take good pictures at any the ability to take good pictures. Hover time, Photography Editor Thelner Hovering to the Southern deserves a big ovation to the Southern deservices. A newcomer to into a job services. Hoover stepped into a job compus, under a cloud of disgrace, a chovering trom previous experiences hangover from previous He cleared hangover the prosition of foul rumor, proving his the position of foul rumor, proving his own merits as well.

Margret Karl seems to have found a forty-eight hour day, for in addition to being a busy representative-at-large of the Student Council plus action in a dozen other organizations, she holds the position of Engraving Editor of the Southern Campus. Her job is one of checking and rechecking picture and copy sizes in relation to the very aesthetic page layouts. We think she's terrific.

ENTRIPL

Sport Stallers Bob Parr. Phil Baker, Bob Starkey, and Fred Grey have a lot of fun planning what to say about the triumpbs and deleats of U.C.L.A.'s athletic teams. The boys were sometimes oblivious to everything but local gossip, but eventually found some time to write their copy.

These busy people are hard at work on all the little touches which make up the duties of an Art Stall. Helen Kunkel, Atalie Adams, Bill Newman and Jack Mahon get some pointers from Robin Lylord, Art Editor: and Marie Dashiell, the big boss.

Reese Frederickson, Boss Man Thelner Hoover, and Gera Gidley made the photography stall a thing of beauty this year. A lack of professional hysterics was a welcome change in this department.

With eyes demurely on their typewriters, Joan Stewart, Margie Blackstock, Sue Harding, Betty Culbert, and Evelyn Newhoff—the Women's Staff—are tending to the feminine business which the Southern Campus must record.

Sales Captain

MARY WILSON Poster Chairman Bob Farmer was Organization Manager, a job entailing much patience with forgetful students. He took care of arrangements for the pages allotted to the various organizations, seeing to it that fees were collected and appointment dates were kept by one and all.

MANAGERIAL

That complex organization known as the Manageria, Stati cintains a number of positions and people of importance. Among them were Anne Brown, who handled Senior Reservations: Lorraine Hofmann, Sales Promotion Manager, and Fat Archibala and Janet Hargrave, who shared the responsibility of Sales Captains.

Jane Wallerstedt had charge if the Office Staff and Mary Wilson handled Poster Publicity for the Sales Campaign. Instead of over-regimentation from this seemingly-complicated system of responsibility, much in the way of gold results has one instead; and the Managerial Staff is to be complimented up to the fine system of organization which it has evolved for years of experience.

known to most loyal Uclans, and he expounded this belief as Editor of their paper. Lil' Robert was willing to lend a helping hand to any sad reporter in distress and was known to be thoroughly com-petent. Hardworking and affable, "The Boy With the Wistful Eyes" proved to be an excellent Editor and was respected and well liked by the entire Bruin staff.

Everett Hayes, consistent booster of Bruin Staff activities, and former Night Editor, was rewarded for his services when he was appointed Managing Editor. Everett is completely compelling in his sincere enjoyment of student journalistic activity, and doesn't mind showing you how much lun he has as self-appointed office Romeo.

Sammy "Sales Talk" Sale. Sports Editor for the fall semester, was one of the most colorful figures in the Bruin lineup. Breezy, popular, and sometimes a tr—ifle noisy, Sammy covered all sports events and edited the now famous "Razz Sheet."

Jimmy Vento stepped into the role of Sports Editor after Sam Sale was forced to resign due to outside activities. An old-timer on the Sports Staff, Jim took over with a vengeance to write a page full of snappy comments and judicious prophecies.

Frances Gold, one of the most popular staff members, and officer of Alpha Chi Alpha, served the Bruin as City Editor last semester. Known to all her friends as "Red", her quick humor and vibrant personality make her one of the most interesting of the journalistic crowd. She winds up her three and a half years of service in a position of no little responsibility.

Leslie Swabacker divides her time between Forensics and the Bruin office. She is an intense person, and takes her Night Editorship in a "do or die" manner.

Bill Schallert

Here we have a picture called "Seven Great Minds in Action." or-meet the Sports Staff. Reading from le't to right (back row), are Bob Wolcott, Milt Willner, Mickey Slobodien, and Tim Vanchee; (front row) John Gunn, Sam Sale, Sports Editors, and Hector Anton, all of whom worked together to put out a really fine record of sports events daily.

Bob Weil. Night Editor and swing fan. can be seen almost any time by the Juke Box in the Co-op. Finds just enough time away from his amusement to do a good job.

Night Editor Betty Carbee was busy dividing her time among approximately thirty-nine and a half campus activities—ah—including the "Broon." U.S.O., A.W.S., and Y.W.C.A. work complete the list, Night Editor Rosanna Shamray kept informed of the doings of the faculty and haunted the Administration Building to fulfill requirements of the Academic Beat.

Lillian Helland, re-elected to the position of Women's Page Editor, because of her outstanding leadership, is another brisk and steady feminine staff-star. She made the Women's Page an interesting one without sacrificing anything in the way of dignity, and kept it above the quality of a mere gossip sheet.

Adelle Truitt

Jack Swanfeldt's column "Two On the Aisle" was a regular leature of the Bruin, and he capably reviewed the best in current motion-picture entertainment

II. as a Daily Bruin reader, you sometimes wondered who did the very clever cartooning, here she is—Art Editor Estelle Eisenberg, better known as "Est."

Incoming freshmen this year found a "Frosh Bible" weightier than ever before, as the University Recreational Association and the Associated Women's Student's handbooks were incorporated in the regular Student Handbook—an economy measure in line with similar campus efforts toward national defense. Published under the aegis of Robert E. Reeder, U.C.L.A.'s Director of Publications, the staff performed ably for ringmaster-editor Malcolm Steinlauf in preparing an authoritative sourcebook for ambitious, or simply curious, Bruins. From a map of the campus and Greek alphabet to the rules of Kerckhoff Hall and the A.S.U.C. Constitution the Handbook answers all questions. To be congratulated on their work are Editor Steinlauf, Assistant Editor Tom Smith, Sports Editor Sam Sale and Manager Lloyd Burstein. Ready for Bruin rooters at every home football game was the official program, The Goal Post, another responsibility of the Publication's Office. Milt Cohen was editor of this year's Goal Post, one of the finest and most complete program-books in U.C.L.A.'s history. Felix Gutierrez, Art Editor, and Herb Dallinger, A.S.U.C. Photographer, deserve a credit line for their contributions.

Ralph Freud capitalizes upon his witty sense of humor and patience to achieve miraculous results from the general rehearsal-bedlam that is Campus Theater and was admired by the local thespians as a modern, progressive director.

cital and the numerous on-again-off-again organizations and ASUC-Administration collaborations that in the past produced musical, dramatic and dance presentations. semester, indicated that drama was in the driver's seat, dominating all activities. It was no plot, for a real attempt to produce The Beggar's Opera was called for lack of talent.

Leads in The Rivals—which was staged by a Music, Art, English, Women's Physical Education departments—Campus Theater coalition—were Blossom Akst and Welder Daniel (standing), Betty Falk and Edward O'Brien.

AH WILDERNESS

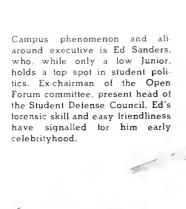

Brat Bill Stephenson gets a well-deserved paddling from grim-faced Mary Welch while John Holden, Selma Stern, Marcelle Fortier and Leo Penn look on. It's a scene in the October production of Ah, Wilderness.

With calendar-like regularity, Campus Theatre began the year with a play a month — a diverse, diverting drama series that opened with O'Neill nostalgia, Sheridan Restoration sophistication and — appropriate for December — an English Christmas pantomime-like Alice in Wonderland. Then came war — but plans went on for a musical Once in a Lifetime, and dramas from Knight of the Burning Pestle to Yellow Jack and Ladies in Retirement.

Man of affairs Dr. Wesley Lewis, director of all forensics on campus, coaches students in debate, extemporaneous, impromptu, afterdinner, oratorical, and radio speaking, and has organized speakers' bureaus for nine large business firms, including the City Defense Council; speakers trained to disseminate information on civilian defense. He teaches, too!

On the lighter side, dapper James Murray, the man who wheedles oratory from lower-division debaters, likes bowling and singing in the church choir. On the serious side he capably manages the off-campus job of training speakers' bureaus to keep the public on its toes regarding civilian defense.

The men casually lounging on the Royce Hall steps are not really so indolent as they seem. Members of the Debate Squad, their business is fast thinking and faster talking. They are the eloquent individuals who win laurels and trophies for their Alma Mater, keeping the case on Kerckhoff Mezzanine amply inhabited. First Row: Dan Shuler, Maurice Hall, Frank Mankiewicz, and Leon Cooper. Back Row: Dr. James Murray, Vaughn Antablin, and Mel Nimmer.

Dr. George Stewart McManus, in his capacity as University Organist, is well known to many students who enjoy the familiar classics he plays each Tuesday and Friday in Royce Hall. Completely proficient in all types of musical endeavor, Dr. Mc-Manus' presentations provide a brief respite for weary scholars who have a free hour in which to listen to the dulcet tones of U.C.L.A.'s organ. He also presents a concert every third Sunday for those outsiders who know and appreciate the quality of his artistry.

Forming one of the largest blocks of buyers of Defense Savings Stamps and Bonds, U.C.L.A.'s loyal chapters have ambitions of seeing each girl in June with a Defense Bond in hand, are dutifully buying stamps and saving newspapers and exhausted toothpaste tubes from the proceeds of which U.S. Government bonds will be purchased. National Organizations in some cases through the activities of its chapters are able to invest thousands of dollars in Defense Bonds, or finance a Mobile Kitchen overseas. Generously the local sororities have made cash donations to the Red Cross, and have energetically muttered "knit-one—pearl-two" over sweaters and socks for men in the service. Several women have already volunteered as blood donors. And organized as the "Defenderettes" or not, chapters are assuming the responsibility of writing letters and sending cigarettes and candy to the soldiers of the Allied cause.

To the familiar wail, "What can women do to aid in National Defense?" U.C.L.A.'s sorority sisters have found not one, but numerous answers—and more important, are demonstrating practicably and profitably. These trim Americans are to be discovered mastering the First Aid technique in Red Cross classes, the enrollment from some houses being over fifty per cent. Others concentrate on the machinations of Women's Volunteer Ambulance Corps or the Motor Corps. Nearly all chapters have either through their own initiative or under the direction of U.S.O. entertained privates 'n officers at buffet suppers and informal parties on campus. U.S.O. has further requisitioned U.C.L.A.'s assistance in canteen work (often sponsored by sorority alumnae) and in entertainment at local "Hospital Centers". On the negative side, orders from the Dean of Women's office applying to sororities and dormitories have outlined principles for the duration—entertainments held on campus unless off-campus expenses are no more, and a reduction of rushing bills. For direct action, since the declaration all houses are during blackouts under the authority of their appointed air-raid wardens, conversant with incendiary bomb methods.

UNIVERSITY MEN

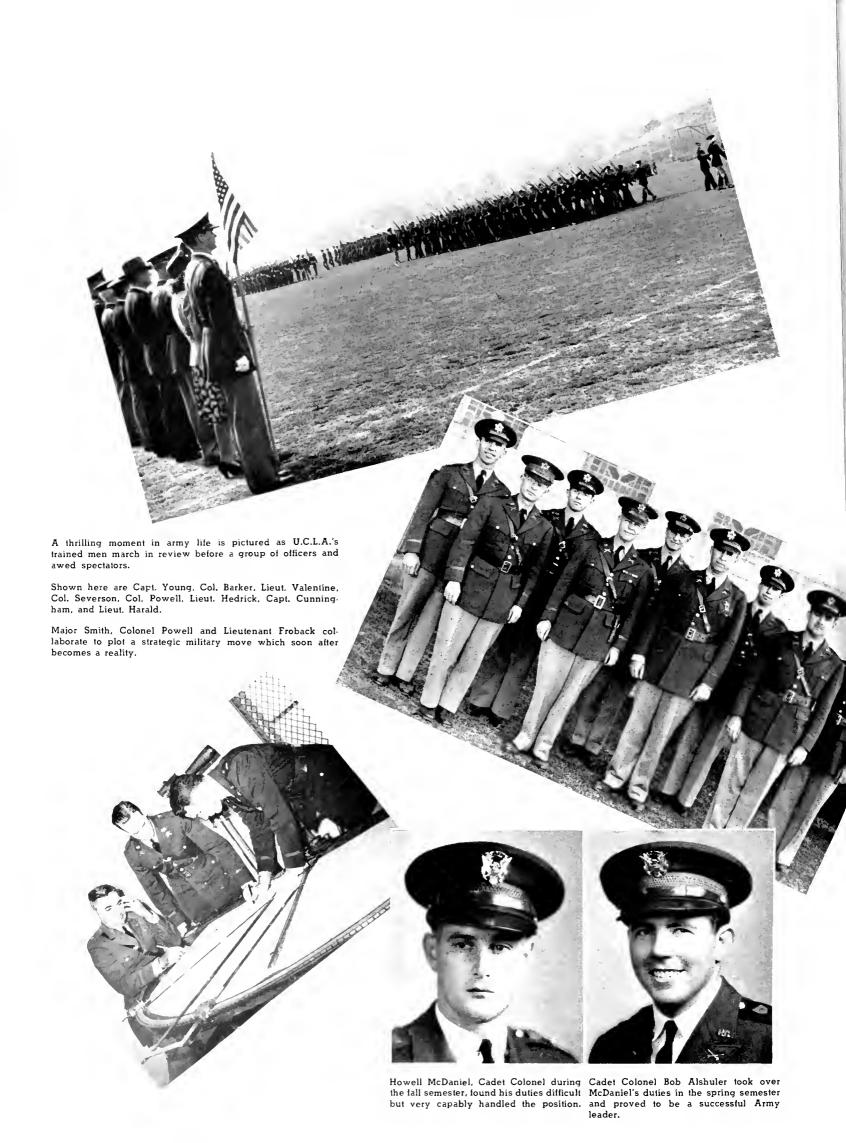

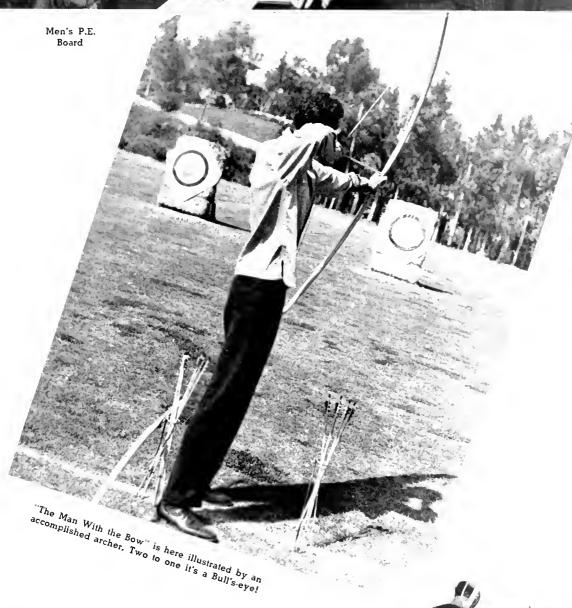

The purpose of the University's military training is to produce better citizenship through sound character development under the Constitution of the United States. Courses in Army and Naval training are prescribed by the War Department. The government furnishes equipment, arms, and uniforms for the students thus trained. The primary object of establishing a unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps is to qualify students for appointment in the United States' armed ranks. Upon graduation, these students are eligible for appointment by the President of the United States as Officers in our Naval and Military forces.

Like knights of old (with a few variations) these Fencing Class members precariously battle it out.

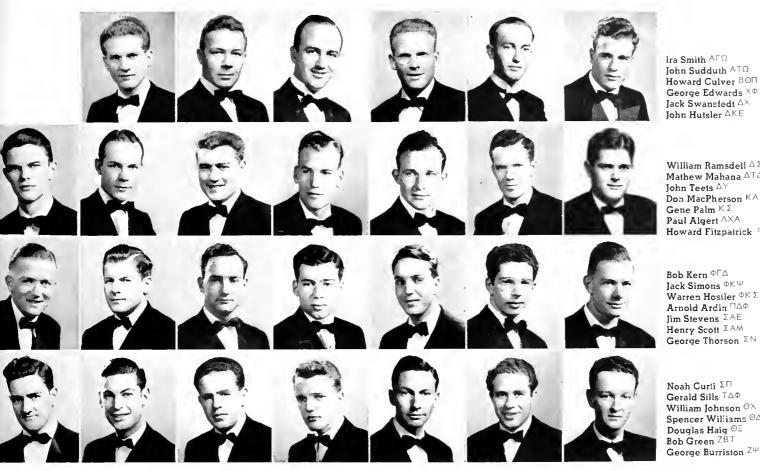

Interfraternity

Imported from Berkeley as chief aide-de-camp to the Dean of Undergraduates at U.C.L.A. and fraternity advisory, Assistant Dean Clyde Johnson has won friends and influenced reople on this campus ever since his installation in the Spring of 1939. New duties fell to the lot of able, accessible Johnson when, in September, 1940, he took the job of organizing and directing the affairs of the Fraternity Alumni Advisory program, then an experiment here and never before been tried elsewhere, but which functions smoothly under his administration.

In response to General George C. Marshall's projected two-point program, U.C.L.A.'s interfraternity agencies have cooperated in first — (the academic service)—that of sustaining the morale of students "who are relaxing their educational efforts in the expectation of being drafted;" and second—the more social obligation conferred by the War Department)—that of providing "wholesome entertainment for men on leave." In both fields, we may report, local fraternity men have labored, are now able to boast a scholastic record exceeding that of the all-men's average, and to show thank-you-for-your-generous-hospitality letters from a Lieut. Commander of the Navy, a Major of the Marine Corps, a Captain of the Army. Authorized by the Council, all U.C.L.A. chapters signed the invitations to the "brothers in uniform" which have appeared in camp bulletins of most of Southern California's military stations. . . . Of more domestic significance, fraternities "accelerated" by adopting a three semester program, and economized by cutting social expenses through Council action. House managers struggled to keep house bills down, had an added responsibility in militating the brothers for community air-raid protection efforts. . . . Now on the active service roll since the declaration of war, are the 115 U.C.L.A. men who entered the Army, the 40 in the Army Air Corps, the 27 in the Navy, and the 21 enrolled in the remaining military branches.

Swan Song

In presenting the tinished product constructed during blackouts and under the depressing individualistic psychologies of war, we, the staff, give to you, the students of this university, the 1942 SOUTHERN CAMPUS, depicting U.C.L.A. as it is, and as we all want to remember it.

Contrary to student opinion, publishing a yearbook of the size and quality of the Southern Campus isn't a simple task. It requires a conscientious and cooperating group of students who are willing to trade diversion for drudgery.

Because the Editor receives most of the credit if it is a success and all the blame if it is a failure. I bullied my poor staff until they began to really take my ideas and deadlines seriously. Unfortunately, I will never be able to really prove to the people who counted how sincerely I appreciated all their help when they could have been doing other things more to their liking, but who worked faithfully filling the assignments of those who found they had too many other things to do . . . my deepest thanks. . .

To Marge a brilliant and marvelous girl who helped me more than she'll ever know . . . who contributed her excellent ideas as well as her abundant physical labor to the building of this edition . . . all the luck in the world, Marge . . . you've given me a great deal to think about concerning life and all its attributes . . . I'm really proud to be one of your many friends.

To Jody, the girl with the marvelous disposition . . . willing, smiling, and thoroughly vital to our little organization . . . was always on hand whenever anyone needed her either for her advice or criticism . . . never said no to any little trivial matter that I might ask her to do . . . thanks, Jody, I'll never be able to thank you.

To Thelner, who never said no to any impossibility regarding photography that I asked him to do . . . his work speaks for itself it's terrific! Thanks again, Thelner, for all those Friday and Saturday nights that you gave up to print pictures for me.

To Robin, who is the most ideal art major anyone had the pleasure of working with . . . never argued unless I asked her to do the impossible . . . Her work proved to all that she claimed full possession of the work that encases this volume. Thanks is such a simple way of expressing the deep gratitude that is within me... please accept it, though, with all my sincerity.

To Phil, one of the too few who could never be replaced on our staff... he's really swell... Worked hard on his section and the results are splendid . . . When he wasn't knee deep in "copy blocks" he was desperately catching up with the fast moving shell on Ballona Creek . . . oh, so! Thanks again, Phil, your friendship and cooperation were priceless.

To Bea, who carried her entire section with the greatest ease and perfection . . . did a matchless job . . . her section was beautifully written . . . my sincerest thanks Bea, for your devoted attention to my requests . . . I'll never quite forget how super you were all year.

To Dorothy, a newcomer on the staff this year, but one of the "good things" that comprise a yearbook staff . . . her section was always ahead of schedule and her tireless efforts were greatly appreciated. Thanks, Dottie, your friendship was wonderful.

To Marcella, who, together with her practice teaching and pneumonia, found little time to tear apart the book. We're happy to know that you are feeling better and thanks for your help.

To Mr. Reeder, for his wonderful faith in me . . . we really miss you.

To Mr. Ackerman, for his aid and guidance during Mr. Reeder's leave of absence, thank you.

To Carlos, one of our super-photographers this year who helped incessantly toward the beautification of our book . . .

Thanks, Carlos, for all your tireless and thankless jobs . . . you've been appreciated tremendously, I assure you.

To George, another terrific photographer who completely lives his pastime and whose results proved that he loves photography . . Thanks, George, you'll never really know how grateful I am.

To Gerry, a champion among girls . . . Gerry cut classes and walked miles covering assignments for me. Her wonderful pictures in the senior section exemplify her fine work.

To Bob Parr, who somehow became a member of Phil's staff along with Bob Starky and who turned out to be one of the best workers on the entire staff. His work was always on time and he was ready if I needed him further. Bob, you were wonderful . . . please accept my simple thanks for all you did.

To Carol and Mary Margaret, who worked far into the night with me pasting pictures . . . Your help was tremendous . thanks for everything . . . I hope you both didn't become too exasperated with Southern Campus not to continue your brilliant work.

To Fred Gray, the boy who can tell you the name of any player on our football squad and just what play he instigated . . . wrote all football copy and did a marvelous job . . . Thanks, Fred. I'll be indebted for years to come for your wonderful service. To Jean Cohn, a small, yet willing freshman who lived in Griffith Park, yet who stayed every night when we were pasting panels . . . her help was tremendous . . . Thanks, Jean, I really appreciated your work.

My deepest appreciation to such fine people as Joan Ramskill, Bessie Ferina, Jean Sjorgin, Vera Bumstead, Bob Mills, Gloria Farquar Mary Rawlings, Helen Holley . . . also Miss Gracey, Mrs. Jacot, Mr. Fleisher, Mr. Edmunds, Mr. Morley, Mr. Preter, Mr. Jessup, Mrs. Gray, Mr. Henderson, Mr. Dallinger, Johnny (Thelner's aide . . . also thanks to people such as Bill Newman, Helen Kunkel, Sallie Norton, Peggy Tyre, and each and everyone who worked . . . you will never know what a wonderful staff of people you were . . . you really contributed to the production of this volume.

All the luck in the world to the most valuable staff an Editor ever had the pleasure of working with.

Indebtedly; MARIE.

Swan Song

A tremendous project was placed before the Management Staff this year, and the greatest possible obstacle stoud in our way. For the War, even to us who have devoted years to the book, places the importance of our work in the background of a greater interest.

Yet the staff, including assistants and workers, gave full cooperation. Each completed his job, and the 10b was well done. To all who have helped, my sincerest thanks!

Our success is the result of a close harmony that existed among Department Managers. Each of these managers shouldered a great responsibility.

Jerry McClellan was our Idea man, and his enthusiasm enlivened the whole Sales Staff. Jerry deserves the credit for many of our campaign themes, and he followed through with helpful sales promotion. I consider it a privilege to have worked with Jerry, and a privilege to count him among my friends.

Lorraine Hofmann did splendid work in handling publicity for the book. From the general public, she received little recognition for her job. But staff members realize that hers was one of the most difficult and important positions in the organization. We could always depend on Lorraine; she never missed a deadline. And she helped in so many ways, so many times.

Herb Fleming, with the aid of his small but excellent staff, turned out a good advertising section.

Anne Brown alone handled Senior Reservations this year, and the effectiveness of her work can be shown by the record-breaking section—more Seniors represented than ever before.

Jane Wallerstedt not only handled the office work well, but she was always ready with a helping hand when the rest of us needed a lift. Jane did more than her job, and we are really grateful.

Bob Farmer gave us the largest Organization Section in the history of the Southern Campus. We are all proud of the terrific job he did.

Janet Hargrave and Pat Archibald were the top-notch sales girls last year, when they sold books by the hundreds. This year, they organized a hundred salesmen and salesgirls to do the same. My thanks to Janet and to Pat and to all who worked with them.

Bob Reeder, former Director of Publications, though he did the work of ten people, was never too busy to listen to our problems, and to help whenever possible. Wherever his Naval duties may take him, my sincerest wishes for his happiness and safety shall follow.

Alice Tilden Pryor, our one and only "Tilli", gave us constant help and encouragement. Thanks for everything, Tilli!

Barbara Steffen has been the finest friend one could imagine. Often she helped us with our work, long after hours and even on precious Sundays.

To Marie Dashiell, and to the whole Editorial Staff, we are indebted for this fine book, which we were proud to promote.

I am deeply grateful for the experience I have gained in Management of the 1942 Southern Campus. But I am even more grateful for the friends I have made through this work with people as fine as Bob Landis, Martha Otis, Bob Meldrum, Alice Tilden Pryor, and Tom Freear. And this year, too, the work has been most enjoyable and worthwhile through association with my grand staff and all the other fine people I have known.

The four years I have spent on the Southern Campus have been the most colorful chapter in my life—a chapter I regret must come to a close.

CRAFTSMEN FOR THE BOOK

JESSE JESSUP

Jesse G. Jessup, general manager of the Bundy Quill and Press, has supervised the printing and publication of fourteen editions of the Southern Campus. Mr. Jessup is recognized throughout the graphic arts industry as an outstanding authority on printing, and his firm is universally conceded to be the leading printer of yearbooks in Southern California. The long list of national prizes awarded the Southern Campus is in no small measure due to the excellence of the printing and the capable direction of Mr. Jessup. His personal interest in this book, along with his close cooperation in technical matters, has been of great value to the staff.

John Morley, service man for the Bundy Quill and Press, handled the difficult assignment of obtaining all printing copy from the staff, completing press forms near the deadline schedules, getting page-proof OKs, and scores of other technical details that go into the printing of a book as large as the Southern Campus. His job was one of the most difficult to perform, and his frequent calls at the Campus office are adequate testimony of his persistence and cooperation to see the work through. John's likable personality will henceforth be missed, as he is now engaged in the ship-building industry.

JOHN MORLEY

ARTHUR PRETER

Arthur Preter, superintendent of the Mission Engraving Company, was the man who managed the production of all the beautiful photo-engravings in the 1942 Southern Campus. The outstanding process-color reproductions on the division pages, along with the unexcelled black and white engravings throughout the book, typify the high quality of workmanship maintained by Preter at the Mission Engraving Co. Art has supervised the engravings for eleven editions of the Southern Campus. His pleasant personality and close cooperation have aided materially in the production of All-American yearbooks for U.C.L.A.

Waldo Edmunds, representing the Mission Engraving Co., serviced the photoengraving work for the 1942 Southern Campus. This was the tenth edition of the U.C.L.A. yearbook handled by Waldo since he graduated from the University in 1926. He was editor of the first All-American Southern Campus during his senior year on the campus, so the Bruin publication is a matter of close personal interest to him. Waldo is active in U.C.L.A. Alumni affairs, and in business activities the Southern Campus is his primary interest.

WALDO EDMONDS

JOSEPH FLEISCHER

Mr. Joseph Fleischer, manager of the Martel-Howlett Photography Studios, has handled the portrait photography for the Southern Campus during the past four years. His personal supervision of all the portraits in the book has made for an excellent quality in these pictures. Fleischer maintained at all times a spirit of cooperation that aided materially in the production of the 1942 yearbook. His staff of workers set a high standard in service and workmanship.

Mr. Jack Henderson, of the Henderson Trade Bindery
